Leghorne, June 25. This morning passed by this Port 7 Spanish Galleys to the Eastward; We have Advice by Letters of the 23d past from Cefalonia, that a French Man of War with two Flutes were arrived there to bring away the Ship Arsenal, which they took from the Dutch.

Venice, June 29. The Letters from Napoli di Romania of the 25th of May tell us, that on the 9th arrived there the Convoy commanded by Signior Marcello; and that several Men of War were detached from the Fleet to meet another Convoy, that was expected under the command of Signior Duedo with the Popes and Maltese Galleys, upon whose arrival the Captain General would open the Campagne with some attempt upon the Enemy; and in the mean time he had sent a Squadron of Ships to cruise in the Archipelago, and raise Contributions on the Islands. Two Men of War called the Redemptor and St. Antonio are fitting here, and may be ready in few days to sail for the Levant. The Advices from Turkey by the way of Ragusa say, that Orders had been sent to the Captain Bassa Mezzomorto, to put ashore from the Fleet 3000 Men, who were to be sent into the Black Sea, to prevent the Depredations of the Moscovites and Cossacks.

Vienna, July 4. The last Letters from the Imperial Army are of the 27th past, when they were encamped near Chonad on the River Maresch; General Caprara arrived there the 21th, and having had a Conference with his Electoral Highness, went back to Segedin to hasten the march of the Artillery, and on the 24th returned to the Army. Two Battalions of Nigrelli arrived in the Camp the 25th, and the same day the Elector of Saxony received advice, that Prince Charles of Vaudemont was on his march with 8 Regiments of Horse to join the Army, and that he should be in few days at Belgrade. The Bassa of Belgrade had sent a Reinforcement to the Garison of Temeswar, upon the aprehentions they were in of a Siege. The Grand Signior went from Adrianople the 18th of the last month towards Sophia, having caused the Heads of 13 Bassa's to be cut off, who had brought from Asia a much smaller number of Men than was commanded them. The Duke of Lorrain parted from hence on Monday last for Hungary. A great many Vessels are laden here with Provisions and Ammunition to be sent down the Danube for the use of the Imperial Forces.

Francfort, July 12. The French since they repassed the Rhine have divided their Army in several Bodies, and have posted them near that River, to hinder the Germans passing it. Paris, July 13. This week was Registred in the Parlement here a new Edict for creating a Million of Rents on the Town House, and several other Edicts are under consideration for the raising of Money, which the Ministers of this Court know not where to find, considering the great and general Poverty of the Kingdom at this time. They write from Brest, that the Marquis de Nesmond with his Squadron was still there; That several Battalions were posted at Camaret, Bertaume, Conquet, and other places, for the defence of those Coasts, where the Inhabitants live in great fear of being Insulted by the Enemies Fleet. Letters from the French Army in Catalonia of the 28th past say, they were still encamped at Tordera; and the Spaniards near Ostalrich: And we are told from Roses of the 30th, that a Convoy of Provisions that was going by Sea for the use of the French Forces, was taken by the Spanish Galleys, and carried to Barcelona; A very considerable loss to the Army who stood in need of this Supply. The last Letters from Piedmont, dated the 4th Instant, have renewed the talk of a Peace on that side; Mareschal Catinat marched the 3d from Rivalta nearer to Pignerol, and encamped at Piu-
